

Brenda Ober Johnson graduated from Southern Oregon University in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in Spanish. At the same time she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU) at SOU. Brenda is now the executive director of La Clinica del Valle, a healthcare service geared toward low-income residents of Jackson County. She has had a profound impact on the community through her dedicated and dynamic leadership. Brenda embodies the best of Southern Oregon University's alumni.