

OSHER LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE
COMMUNITY LECTURE SERIES
 Formerly Known As "One Shots"
 Ashland - Campbell Center - Classroom A
 Wednesdays 1:00 to 3:00 pm
No registration necessary - bring a guest!
FALL 2011

Date	Presenter	Topic
September 14	Gerry Cavanaugh	SEVEN DEADLY SINS. Contemporary manifestations and consequences of the 7 Deadly Sins as manifested in the perilous shape of American society and the global world system.
September 21	Shoshanah Dubiner	PATTERNS IN NATURE. A richly illustrated tour of the basic visual patterns and formal themes that underlie the immense variety in the natural world.
September 28	Alan Journet	CLIMATE CHANGE IN THE ROGUE VALLEY. If the climate is changing as a result of human activity, the threats posed to natural and human systems will be considerable.
October 5	Steve Weyer	THE INTERNET: Highlight some issues behind current news and government proposals related to the internet network and information accessibility.
October 12	Louis Goldman	ART COLLECTING FOR FUN AND PROFIT. Review the factors which influence the price of pieces of art.
October 19	Renate Gyuro	ALPACA 101. A review of the history of Alpacas in South America and their presence in the U.S. today.
October 26	Jeannine Annette Grizzard	ASHLAND CONTEMPORARY THEATRE. Go behind the scenes and learn more about our local theatre.
November 2	John Forsyth	CIVILITY AND CONVERSATIONS ABOUT END-OF-LIFE CARE. Combines a practical knowledge of over 40 years of medical practice with a lifetime interest in medical ethics.
November 9	Robert Ross	BOND: A BANGZI OPERA. See scenes from the adaptation of the Merchant of Venice to opera by one of the leading Henan opera companies.
November 16	Alan Rosenberg	TELLING A GOOD STORY—AND GETTING ATTENTION. Find out how Alan made himself the most famous unpublished author in the world.